

MONEY MATTERS

Are you looking for help with your cancer-related financial worries?

We understand how difficult it is to focus on getting well when you are worrying about money. A Wellspring Money Matters Case Manager is available by telephone or video chat to help you navigate government benefit programs and other financial resources that may be available. This program is available free of charge and without referral.

To request an appointment, visit:

wellspring.ca/moneymatters

moneymatters@wellspring.ca

Wellspring is a charity that offers professionally-led programs and services to help with the emotional, social, practical and physical needs of people living with cancer. All at no charge.